GREAT SPORT IN PROSPECT

NOTED HORSES TRAINING SATISFACTORILY AT LOUISVILLE FOR KENTUCKY STAKES.

Hawthorn and Other Derby Eligibles Doing Particularly Well—Frolegs Among Those Pointing for the $10,000 Kentucky Handicap.

Louisville, Ky., April 9.—Hawthorn continues to work most satisfactorily for his local engagements in the Kentucky Derby, to be run at Churchill Downs on May 10, and the $10,000 Kentucky Handicap, which is to be decided at Douglas Park on Monday, May 26. By running six furlongs in 1:14 1/2, pulled up, in his last trial at the Downs, following his mile and an eighth in 1:57 of recent date, he appears to be a three-year-old capable of covering any route of ground with all the dazzling speed of the fastest sprinter in addition. The green son of Hastings shows no ill effects of any work given him. He comes on the track with his heels flying and leaves the course in the same caparish mood. He is apparently a glutton for work and has no signs of a delicate disposition at all in his make-up.

Prince Hermis, Lew Marion's good looking three-year-old, is also training satisfactorily for the big race. He appears to be a sturdy colt and runs the last part of his trials more vigorously than the first part. He is much like his sire in conformation, but lacks Hermis' quick early running ability.

Brookfield, E. R. Bradley's colt, apparently has an abundance of speed, but the best judges question the staying ability of the son of Yankee Gun. Several other Derby eligibles here are doing good work, notably the three-year-old filly, Floral Park, and it may be that she will be sent to the post in the big race. She has speed and her trials indicate that she rather likes the long route.

All of the Kentucky Handicap candidates are going along well with their work. High Private has his old spring lameness, but to all appearances he is training so well that he is sure to go to the post in that rich color. Frolegs and Star Charter are both now doing good work for trainer J. F. Scher, and Irish Gentleman could not look better. The same can be said of Buckhorn, in the string of R. J. Mackintosh.

Local turfmen who have lately visited Lexington say that The Manager is working promisingly for T. C. McDowell and is looked upon as a dangerous factor for the big race.

The two-year-old events to be run during the local meetings this spring are sure to be of more interest than ever before. It is generally conceded that the average class of the youngsters in training in Kentucky this spring is superior to that of any other racing season since the days when such stonking young racers as Spec Meno and Sped. Thrift and Hindoo raced here as two-year-olds. Already some of these youngsters have worked as fast as the average race for two-year-olds was run several years ago. Unless they are morning glories, there are certainly some sensational youngsters in the barns at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park. It is no wonder, for their cost prices as yearlings range from $14,000 down. There are several strings of these youngsters now at the local tracks that could not be purchased for a considerable fortune. In the Bradley stable alone there are housed two-year-olds valued at more than $50,000.

In every way the coming meetings here promise to be brilliantly successful. The increase in the value of purses will make many of the selling races equal in class the handicap events of a few years back. The best horses, with the exception of the real topnotchers, will take part in these events this spring and the average daily card will be as full of quality as it is possible to arrange.

Some few of the locally trained horses will go to Lexington, but with the exception of Hawthorn and one or two other cracks, all of the stars now quartered here will not sport colors until the Churchill Downs and Douglas Park meetings.

On account of the unusually low temperature, no fast trials were attempted yesterday at Churchill Downs or Douglas Park, but scores of racers were galloped slowly. The tracks were in fine condition. Trainer John Walters, who is at Douglas Park with G. M. Hendrie's colts, has a band of five likely three-year-olds, Great Britain, in great condition from the standpoint of appearance. The son of The Commuter is not entered in the Kentucky Derby, but is engaged in the Latonia Derby and Walters has him well advanced in training on the track at which he wintered in Tennessee was in good condition, and while he never sent the horse since last fall a faster time than 57, Great Britain will be ready for a few short races at the local tracks this spring. Green Britain won his last three starts in Kentucky last fall. In his final race he defeated some good ones, carrying 116 pounds. Walters thinks he holds out the promise of being a great three-year-old. Mr. Hendrie is expected here in a few days, to inspect his two-year-olds now in training at the Downs. They are in charge of James S. Everman, who developed them at Charleston, and include March, Miss Charcot, Singlet, Woodburn and Lady Charcot. March is a half-sister to the noted Forward, which, after having raced brilliantly early last spring, was sold to W. A. McEnery for $7,500. Forward was taken to England and changed hands in a selling race in which he made a good showing. A story is going the rounds of how Hawthorn, the Kentucky Derby favorite, came close to being taken to England to race, which, of course, would have robbed this spring's Kentucky classic of the most spectacular candidate it has had since Hindoo, Leonatus and Ben Brush won the trophy.

Mr. McEnery, a Britisher, with a bankroll, suddenly appeared in Kentucky in quest of a great horse. He had heard of Hawthorn and he said he wanted to buy the gelding. The services of two veterinarians were engaged and they reported to Mr. McEnery that Hawthorn was unsound. It was cited that the horse had a lump on one knee, due to a thorn having penetrated it while running out as a yearling at August Belmont's Nursery Stud, near Lexington. It was then that Mr. McEnery, having been given a clean bill of health for Forward, purchased that performer.

Meanwhile Charles F. Buschmeyer, of Louisville, took a fancy to Hawthorn. He consulted W. S. Trevey, who was training the horse for his owner, G. B. Coyle, of Texas. Trevey informed him that Hawthorn was sound and that the imperfection on his knee amounted to nothing. Mr. Buschmeyer wired Coyle that he would give him $10,000 for Hawthorn and Blue Jay. Mr. Coyle answered that if the money was deposited in bank before three o'clock on a certain day he would sell the horse for the price named by Mr. Buschmeyer. The deal was closed without delay.

Hawthorn's achievements are history. Trevey's judgment has been vindicated. He says he is training the greatest three-year-old in America, and he is not alone in this supposition, for some of the leading turf experts of America regard Hawthorn as the fleetest thoroughbred in this country.

NORFOLK FORM IS TOPSY TURVY.

McCreary Only Winning Favorite at Jamestown Jockey Club's Track, but Finishes Are Close.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—Form was topsy-turvy at the Norfolk track this afternoon. McCreary, winner of the first race, was the only favorite to score during the afternoon. Smash, at odds-on, and Colors, also backed down to a short price, were among the defeated choices.

The program was an ordinary one, the conditions of all six races being framed to suit the cheaper class of patrons. The horsemen have been chary about entering any but the poster grade of horses, fearing that they would be run up, if they were with anything like a good prospect. Fortunately the racing secretary has been able to get together well-balanced fields and, in a majority of instances, interesting contests have resulted. In three instances this afternoon the winners were first home by the smallest of margins. McCreary and Counterpart won by snort heads, while Ancon's margin over Jonquil was a nose.

J. W. Hedrick, who has been in the limelight during the past few months as a hall-ranger, is now getting a dose of his own medicine. During the past few days whenever one of his horses has won it has been boosted and his experience has been anything but profitable. Chempu carried the Hedrick colors to victory in the fourth race this afternoon and he was promptly bid up $200 over his entered selling price. There were two bidders, Sam Louis and William Garth, each raising Chempu $100. Hedrick retained the horse at $800.

Dynamo, favorite for the third race, was unfortunate in that he fell just as Halsey was about to make his bid. The colt broke slowly and was going through on the inside in rounding the far turn when he stumbled and went down. Dynamo rolled under the inside fence and galloped around the infield while Halsey lay stretched out on the track. Assistance was hurried to the lad and examination disclosed that he had escaped with a shaking up. Dynamo was well thought of by the Juarez contingent and was staunchly supported.

Frank Bray saddled his first winner in a long time when he sent the two-year-old Carburter to the post in the second race. Connally kept the colt well up to the furlong post, where he drew away under a mild drive to beat Zack Wiggin's length.

The stewards still have the Irish Kid race under investigation and a ruling will probably be handed down tomorrow. It is said that the officials have measured evidence to the effect that the two presumes-races which incriminate a couple of horses and that at least one of them will be shown the gate.

Coeur d'Alene was excused by the stewards from starting in the fourth race on account of having pulled up lame after being worked this morning.

R. T. McKeever, whose Springmass wintered here, was an arrival from Brooklyn this morning. The track was fast this morning, when the following work-outs took place.

Arner—Mile in 1:44, handily. In prime condition. Big Dipper—Three-eighths in 36. Training well. Black Chief—Three-eighths in 38. Is good. Blue Mouse—Five-eighths in 1:05. Acts and looks good.

Brynary—Three-eighths in 38. Acts good. Bulgar—Half mile in 54. A trifle sore. Camellia—Five-eighths in 1:05.

Dick Baker—Three-quarters in 1:18. Training sore.

Enver Bey—Three-eighths in 36. Is good and will Plabergast—Mile in 1:47, handily.

Florin—Half mile in 58, cantering.

Font—Mile in 1:45, easily. Will race well here.

Fotch—Half mile in 54. Is good.

Frank Hudson—Mile in 1:47, improving.

Henry Hutchison—Three-eighths in 38. At his best.

Jack Denman—Three-eighths in 38. Acts good.

Louise Travers—Half mile in 54. Of little account.

Mollie S.—Half mile in 54.

Paris Queen—Half mile in 54. Acts good.

Phant—Three-eighths in 38. Will improve.

Rubia Granda—Three-quarters in 1:24, breezing.

Sir Blaise—Three-quarters in 1:22. Acts good.

Spunkfak—Three-eighths in 38. Acts good.

Troy Weight—Three-quarters in 1:18. Is good.

Trumps—Half mile in 58, cantering. A good one.

Veilcher—Three-eighths in 36. Training well.

Wolferton—Three-quarters in 1:22. Training well after long rest.

Yena—Five-eighths in 1:05. Is good.

SYLVESTRIS AGAIN A WINNER.

N. B. Davis' Mare Takes Another Handicap at Marlboro Track.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—The layers of odds at Marlboro were able this afternoon to recoup some of their losses of the past few days, for, although one favorite and two second choices won, several well-backed horses that were beaten helped them. A crowd of the usual proportions made the journey to the track and speculation during the afternoon was lively. The feature of the afternoon, the Marlboro Handicap for three-year-olds and over at six and a half furlongs, was won by N. B. Davis' good mare Sylvestris. She was one of the choices of the race, even though she carried top weight. Semi-quarter, which had been showing good form here, was backed into favoritism but his chances were ruined when he was shut off right after the start.

Jockeys Dreyer and F. Jackson carried off the riding honors, the first named winning with Cliff Top, Jim Milton and Bat Masterson, while Jackson was the pilot of Senegambian and Smirk.

The races did not begin until 2:45 today owing to the fact that the special train from Baltimore was late on account of a wreck on the road.

FORT ERIE STAKES ANNOUNCED.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 9.—The Niagara Racing Association has opened its stakes for the two meetings to be held this year at the Fort Erie track. The Canadian Derby, $3,500, will be the topline for the spring meeting, July 4 to July 11, while the $5,000 Dominion Handicap, one of the most valuable of American stakes in recent years, will be run as the chief attraction for the second meeting, August 6-13. The various stakes will close May 5, and are as follows:

To Be Run During First Meeting.

Fourth of July Stakes, handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Niagara Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,500.

Canadian Derby, three-year-olds, $3,500.

Fort Erie Stakes, selling, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

To Be Run During Second Meeting.

Dominion Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $5,000.

Iroquois Hotel Stakes, handicap, two-year-olds, $1,500.

Grand Canadian Steeplechase, handicap, 4-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Canadian Sportsman, handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

HORSES REACH HAYRE DE GRACE.

Two Hundred Already Quartered at Maryland Track for Meeting Soon to Open.

Hayre de Grace, Md., April 9.—The race track of the Harford County Agriculture and Breeders' Association was the scene of much activity when a special train from Charleston with seventy-five horses on board steamed into town in anticipation of the opening of the spring racing season on April 18. In two Pullmans came owners, trainers, jockeys and other race horse followers. With the runners already stabled at the track and the new arrivals, there are more than 200 horses here now. Some 100 more are due to arrive within a few days.

Included in the arrivals were horses belonging to H. G. Bedwell, W. T. Anderson, J. L. Holland, W. P. Burch, Thomas F. Sheedy and G. P. Eustis. Those who had come in previously from Juarez, Mex., included H. Hyams, W. R. Mizell, W. B. Carson and R. G. Martin.

Robert R. Tucker, who has charge of the stabling, announced today that he could probably find room for about 1,000 thoroughbreds by using all available stalls in Hayre de Grace vicinity. At the track there are quarters for only 600.

The racing officials are busy weeding out all horses except those which will likely start. Superintendent of the track Tucker announced that there will be no racing through the field during this meeting as the steeplechase course will not be ready. An effort will be made to have this course in condition for use at the fall meeting.

The betting ring is being enclosed so as to protect the layers and their patrons in time of storm. A board walk is being laid from the old Port road to the race track railroad depot, a distance of a quarter of a mile.

Among the new rules adopted by the association this year is one requiring that all employees be Marylanders. As a result the Pinkerton force will not be in charge. Captain Humphrey, formerly head of the Baltimore Detective Department, will be in charge of policing the grounds, and all minor positions, as far as possible, will be filled by Harford County people.

The racing officials will include: Presiding Judge, C. H. Pettigill; Associate Judge, H. U. Homan; Starter, James Milton; Paddock and Patrol Judge, W. B. Schaefer; Handicapper, W. S. Vosburgh; Racing Secretary, Fred Rehberger; Steward to represent Jockey Club, E. C. Smith; Superintendent of Grounds, Edward Burke; Superintendent of track, Robert R. Tucker; Official Timer, W. H. Barretto.

The most attractive feature on the card for the opening day will be the Harford County Handicap, $1,500 added, for three-year-olds and upward, five and a half furlongs.

Reservations of stalls have been made for August Belmont, H. P. Whitney, Beverwyck Stable, R. F. Carman, G. P. Eustis, H. C. Hallenbeck, Robert Davies, H. G. Bedwell, J. M. Zimmer, Frederick Johnson, Mrs. L. A. Livingston, T. Monahan, Captain E. C. Gass, the Onock Stable, James Fitzsimmons, P. S. P. Randolph, A. L. Aste, Hal Parr, P. J. Pons, G. P. Sherman, Quincy Stable, J. O. Talbot, Amos Turner, R. T. Wilson, J. S. Tyree and many others.

MANAGER HACHMEISTER ON HAND.

Louisville, Ky., April 9.—John Hachmeister, manager of the Douglas Park and Latonia jockey clubs, arrived here after having spent the winter in Florida. Mr. Hachmeister returned in the bloom of health. He has been hunting and cruising around with him in a physical way. He is ready for the activities of spring and summer racing and, following a sojourn of three or four days in St. Louis, where he went last night, he will take up his duties in connection with the big meeting which begins Monday, May 26, at Douglas Park.

Manager Hachmeister is pleased over the array of eligibles for the various stake events to be run at Douglas Park, first, on the opening day, the Kentucky Handicap, one mile and a quarter, for three-year-olds and upward, $10,000 added; the Memorial Handicap, six furlongs, for three-year-olds and upward, $2,000 added; the Spring Trial Stakes, five furlongs, for two-year-olds, $2,500 added; the Speculation Stakes, selling, one mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,500 added.

The Kentucky Handicap, which will be the inaugural feature, is, from the monetary standpoint, the richest spring and summer stake in America. It will bring together a field the like of which has not been seen since racing ceased on the metropolitan courses. It will attract the crack contestants of the Kentucky Derby, to be decided May 10, at Churchill Downs, and it is assumed that the contenders in this race will be the best in years.

Manager Hachmeister is gratified over the outlook for racing in Kentucky and throughout the country. The sport is gaining in strength and popularity, he says, and he looks for a glorious revival of the pastime in many places where now it is under the ban as the result of misguided legislation.

He is specially pleased over the class of horses now in training in Kentucky. He says it means even better racing than the patrons of the sport have known heretofore or had even hoped for.

Frank Brunen will join Manager Hachmeister here in arranging for the Douglas Park season. The magnificent plant is in fine trim and there is nothing to do in connection with it. During the summer Manager Hachmeister probably will build a club house at Douglas Park.

AMERICANS WELCOMED IN FRANCE.

"I can vouch for one thing," said M. Cheri Halbronn, the well-known French auctioneer, in a recent interview, "and that is that we in France admire and respect American sportsmen, and this recent decision of the Stud Book Commission is certainly not the outcome of envy or jealousy, as a section of the racing public may be inclined to think. England some years ago began to discriminate against American trainers and jockeys, with the result that only Joyner, Mr. H. P. Whitney's trainer, and 'Skeets' Martin and Danny Maher, the jockeys, are left there."

"On the other hand, France has welcomed American owners, trainers and jockeys with open arms, and will continue to do so. Men like Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, Mr. H. B. Duryea, Mr. Charles Carroll, Mr. H. P. Whitney, Mr. T. Hitecock and others will always be welcome here, and good sportsmen as they are, they will be the first to appreciate the value of the recent decision. No doubt many American-bred horses whose names are found in the French Stud Book should not be there under the new rule, but I do not see very well how they can be eliminated now."

"When the American invasion began the French authorities did not raise any serious objections, nor did they consider it necessary to examine too closely the pedigrees of the horses brought over. At that time the American Stud Book authorities were thought to be reliable, but, unfortunately, it has since been discovered to be otherwise."

"American breeders like Messrs. H. P. Whitney, the late J. R. Keene, August Belmont, F. C. Bishop and Clarence Mackay, realizing that many errors had been committed in America regarding the American Stud Book entries, especially since the Civil War of 1860, when all thoroughbred horses were dispersed over the country and many records destroyed, went to England and France to buy stallions and broodmares. The recent avalanche of American horses in Europe has necessitated greater pains being taken on the part of those responsible, for France must protect her interests in a matter of such vital importance."

PLANNING EASTERN DETAILS

DISTANCE OF BROOKLYN AND SUBURBAN HANDICAPS TO BE MILE AND AN EIGHTH.

Conditions of Twenty-Three Stakes to Be Run During Belmont Park Meeting in Hands of Printers—Track in Good Condition.

New York, April 9.—The conditions of twenty-three stakes to be run at the coming Belmont Park meeting are now in the hands of the printers. The added money to the Brooklyn and the Suburban Handicaps will be $2,500 each, but the distance will be reduced to a mile and an eighth because the old mile and a quarter starting point is cut up as a result of the aviation meet held at the track two years ago. Entries for these stakes will close April 28. One day will be Army Day and will be devoted to flat racers and jumpers. The Keene Memorial Stakes will be a three-quarter-mile dash for two-year-olds. The added money to the money to the overnight races will range from $400 to $800. The track is now in good condition. A horse worked three-quarters in 1:17 over it this morning.

John Mullins, owner of Badge and half owner of the Guttenberg track after it ceased to be a race track, died at Atlantic City Tuesday night. As a youth he sold religious books and pictures from house to house. He became wealthy through the selling of furniture. He made annual trips to Ireland and saw much racing abroad. He had a home near Richard Croker's Dublin establishment.

Wendy Lady, by Peter Pan—Biturica, is now on her way to America. She is owned by the James R. Keene estate and was mated with Colin before leaving England.

The New York Sun comments editorially as follows:

"A limited season of racing at the New York tracks under the auspices of Mr. August Belmont, Mr. H. P. Whitney, Mr. H. K. Knapp, Mr. John Sanford, Mr. R. T. Wilson and other reputable turfmen, who have subscribed to a fund to pay the expenses, is assured now, provided the Court of Appeals affirms the decision in the Shane case that oral betting is not against the law."

"Governor Sulzer has no fanatical objection to horse racing as a sport, and sees nothing immoral in the betting between patrons. A statute may make betting on any contest or on a mere matter of opinion unlawful, but betting is too common to be considered iniquitous in itself whatever the law is. In regard to the statutes which for some time have prevented racing in this state, it is for the highest court to determine what they forbid and what they do not forbid. If oral betting is not unlawful, the race tracks may open their gates again without hindrance or just criticism."

SANFORD HORSES TO TAKE THE FIELD.

Twenty Two-Year-Olds Bred at Hurricane Stud to Race on New York Tracks.

New York, April 9.—The stable that will be raced by John Sanford during the coming season, beginning with the opening at Belmont Park, Decoration Day, will be made up of about twenty-two-year-olds. This new departure for the Sanfords of racing their horses at the commencement of the season instead of waiting for the Saratoga meeting, as in former years, is pleasing to turf patrons generally, as no more of the "Amsterdams" and "Amsterdams" can turn than those of the Amsterdam owner and breeder. So far as is known no rider has been engaged for the stable. The youngsters are all of the Sanford breeding, many of them being by sires that have the Hurricane Farm colors in many a hard-earned and popular victory in former years. The two-year-olds registered with the Jockey Club, from which the stable will be recruited, are:

Alberta True, b. f., by Chucanunda—Auriclesville, Brumley, ch. c., by Isidor—Adriana, Holland, b. c., by Isidor—Amstel, Cliff Field, b. or br., by Clifford—Ricard, Cliff Maid, b. f., by Clifford—Barnard II, Fatigue, b. f., by Caughnawaga—Unrest II, Hill Stream, b. f., by Chucanunda—Burnt Hills, Holland, b. c., by Isidor—Amstel, Irish Boy, ch. c., by Caughnawaga—Irish Girl II, Love Apple, ch. f., by Chucanunda—One I Love, Maid Mahawk, br. f., by Mohawk II—Kennetico, May Dora, ch. f., by Isidora—Mai, Mon Cliff, b. c., by Clifford—Princess Monmouth, Perth Rock, blk. c., by Rockton—Perth, Rose Rock, b. f., by Potomac—Rock Rose, Sir William Johnson, ch. c., by Isidor—La Tosca II.

Song of Valley, b. c., by Isidor—Queen of Song, Waga Hill, ch. c., by Caughnawaga—Whiplash, Young Emblem, b. c., by Royal Emblem—Onaga.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses of Robert Davies are still at Benning and may not go to Hayre de Grace because of the scarcity of stalls at that place.

Kimball Patterson has left Lexington for Hayre de Grace with four horses belonging to Mr. Earle of New Jersey. Jockey Heine Radtke accompanied the stable.

M. Blanc, the foremost French breeder, has mated Amie, the dam of Adam and Ajax, with Hermis; also Helene, a sister to Adam and Ajax, and the dam of Porte Maillot, one of the best French two-year-olds of 1911.

W. K. Vanderbilt, August Belmont and H. B. Duryea scored three victories out of the five events on the card at the opening of the Longchamps meeting in France Sunday. Mr. Duryea was the winner of the feature race, the Prix Sablons, with fourteen crack horses comprising the field.

The Interstate Live Stock Fair will give a mixed meeting at Sioux City, Iowa, September 15 to 20, during which more purses for thoroughbred racers will be provided than ever before. The running race program will be made up as follows: One mile and an eighth, $500; five furlongs, for three-year-olds, $150; four furlongs, for two-year-olds, $150; six furlongs, $200; five furlongs (consolation), $150; one mile, $250; six furlongs, $200; one mile (consolation), $200; four furlongs (best 2 in 3), $150.

GOVERNOR IS AWAITING DECISION.

Albany, N. Y., April 9.—The present members of the State Racing Commission in their last report to the Legislature declared that the law as it stands interfered with racing, and that as a result horse breeding in this state had been discouraged. They informed the governor that under present conditions they desired to resign, and asked the executive to appoint a new commission. The governor, however, is disposed to await the decision of the Court of Appeals on the oral betting case before making public his views on the subject.

GREAT SPORT IN PROSPECT.

In addition to the Morris juveniles, Everman has sixteen other horses in his barn at the Downs. In all he has in training twenty-one racers. They include T. M. Green, Mack B. Kuhnauks, Wander, Coreopsis, Kenneth D., Beau Chilton, Louise Paul and fourteen two-year-olds, among the latter being Longwood, First Degree, Expectation, Flaming El-mango, Bunny, Pared Post and a bay colt by Leonidas. The Everman horses wintered at Charleston and a number of them were winners there. Everman has jockey Eddie Taplin under contract for this season. The boy is now at Jamestown, but will be in Kentucky for the opening of the Lexington meeting. Taplin rode 120 winning races last year and ranked seventh in the list of American jockeys.W. H. Fizer has about concluded to only send three of his string to Lexington to race during the coming meeting there. One is the three-year-old filly Helen Pink, and the others are the two-year-olds Attica and Brevite. Mr. Fizer has added to his string here three two-year-olds that wintered in Tennessee. They are a chestnut colt by Dr. Boots —Sowing Girl, a chestnut gelding by The Commoner —Zera, and a chestnut filly by Dr. Boots—Kate Elam. The first-named is a half-brother to that good horse Morales, while the Zera gelding is named old Master and the Kate Elam filly Alta Loma Maid.Trainer John Walters brought word that Charles Reed, the noted turfman, is still alive and in fairly good health at the age of eighty-four years.
He resides near Gallatin, Tenn. Reed once owned the famous Fairview Stud in Tennessee and raced many noted horses, including the great Thora and her noted half-sister, Henloren. At one time he was the biggest stockholder in the Saratoga race track and when he quit the turf and engaged in breeding thoroughbreds at Fairview, he turned out many famous racers, including such stars as Dobbins, Yorkville Belle, Don Alonzo, Hornpipe, Chis-wick, Picknick, Wernberg and Sir Francis. The many friends of this famous horseman will be glad to learn that he is still alive. He has not visited a race track for a number of years.Though John W. Schorr will, as usual, be represented at the early Canadian meetings this season, it is understood that he has in contemplation the division of his stable early in May and that he will keep Froglegs, Star Charter and Leochares, the best of his string here until the spring season of racing is over and send the second division of his stable to Canada, where, after the close of racing at Douglass Park, his entire establishment will be concentrated. Trainer J. F. Schorr is pointing Froglegs especially for the $10,000 Kentucky Handicap to be decided at Douglass Park on the opening day of the coming spring meeting there, Monday, May 26.

TRAINING NEWS FROM LEXINGTON.

little.

veloped into a fine looking horse and should race well this season.T. C. McDowell's Breeder's Futurity candidate, a chestnut filly by Watercross—Reed of Ashtand, worked a half over the hill in :50, handily. It was a good move and she is a likely filly.The carload of horses which left tonight for Havre de Grace was made up of the pick of fifteen two-year-olds that Kitchin bred and broke last fall. P. Sheridan's Rack Bay and four two-year-olds belonging to T. Scully. The best of the Patterson lot is a bay colt by Sandringham that worked a half mile here in :49 over the hill. It looks as if all of the five will make good. Rack Bay wintered well and is fit, having worked three-eighths in :36 here with good weight up. The Scully two-year-olds have been getting slow work here. The two-year-old that J. M. Goode gave away on account of sickness died Sunday morning. His name was Ed. W. Moore's Tivoli fell with jockey Aker this morning. Aker received a slight cut on the face and the colt was hurt.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 9.—The weather yesterday was cold and raw. The Kentucky Association track was in good condition, but not many horses worked.
Will McDonald sent a Kentucky mile and an eighth in 2:00, the first mile being covered in 1:47. Manager Mack and Clinton worked miles in 1:44. La Mode five-eighths in 1:02, which was excellent, considering the condition of the track. The Pennam a half mile in 51. Lou Calu's Migrate—Emma Louise colt three-eighths in 37.The carload of horses from Juarez that had been marooned at Washington, Ind., on account of the flood for a couple of weeks, reached Lexington tonight. In the car were six of J. E. Newman's horses, including Pan Zaretta, Mother Katcham and Dick Dodie. T. S. Harrison's three, in charge of trainer Lee Erb, are Bonanza, Whining Witch and El Sabio.
Mose Goldblatt came over from Cincinnati to see that the trio he is training—Mary Emily, J. Nolan and Just Red—shipped all right. Others in the car were Falcada and Cordie F., owned by Paul Miles, and Bit of Fortune, the property of Phil Sheridan.There was no work of moment at the Kentucky Association track this morning, the track being soft as the result of an all night rain and several early morning showers.Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradley departed last night for Chicago.The latest foal at Kingston Farm is a half-brother to the good four-year-old racer Castleton, now in England. The youngster is by Peter Pan—Mintake, by Marcion and was foaled yesterday.John G. Green's good handicap horse, Countess, the stable of J. W. May, is in bad shape from pneumonia contracted en route from Charleston.The stable room problem has become a perplexity.
Max Hirsch went yesterday from Norfolk for eleven stalls. Superintendent Ross was unable to find room for him.Starter Harry Morrissey had a big attendance of two-year-olds at his school before the barrier on the track yesterday afternoon.J. Hal Woodford of Paris reports the death of the chestnut filly Yonassac, by Orlando —Autumn Leaves. This horse died at Louisville recently after arrival from Juarez.John E. Madden has sold three two-year-olds to J. W. Johnson, the owner of Vera Finn and Milton and for whom John M. Goode is training. They are the bay filly by Plaudes—Myrtle Harkness; bay filly, by Yankee—Bold Girl, and chestnut gelding, by Plaudis—Stephens.Gallagher Bros. have presented to Reed & Williams the chestnut filly Yonassac, 3, by Nasturtium—Highland Princess. Yonassac had contracted a bad case of pneumonia. Reed & Williams had the filly removed from the track to a private stable and she is now in a fair way to recover.P. W. Millett has booked five of his mares as follows:Amaranth, by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle II., in foal to Trap Rock, to Ballot.Reed Light, by Tammany—Halo, in foal to Voter, to Ormondale.Lauveta Burke, by Prince of Monaco—Slister, in foal to Peter Pan, to Peep o' Day.Miss Doyle, by The Commoner—Thistle, in foal to Transvaal, to Ormondale.Sentia, by Flying Dutchman—Magna Charter, in foal to Miller, to Transvaal.Edward Frazer reports that Miss Manners, by Longflight, out of Mand L., by Bertram, has foaled a bay colt by Contender.Breckinridge Viley reports that Linora, by Linden, out of Lady Hawkstone, by Hawkstone, has foaled a chestnut filly by Star Shoot. The mare has since been mated with Peter Quince.Garret D. Willy Yonassac, a fine chestnut filly, foaled on April 1, by Stallwart, out of Variant (half sister to Cap and Bells), by Disguise.Thomas C. McDowell reports that Countess Irma has foaled a bay filly by Peep o' Day.The beautiful silver punch bowl, which Johnson N. Camden has donated to the Kentucky Association as a trophy for the winner of the Camden Handicap, is now being displayed in the window of local jeweler and is attracting much attention.The bowl, which is fourteen inches in diameter and eight inches from base to top, was made for Mr.
Camden in New York, and is especially notable for its plainness of design and the absence of the usual ornamentation so often detracts from trophies of this kind.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM LANDS ABROAD.

Pretty Polly foaled a bay colt by Spearminot on March 8, and will visit Desmond.The crack jockey, Walter Griggs, is engaged to be married to Florence, daughter of Fred Rickaby.Elizabetha, winner of the Chester Cup and Northumberland Plate, has foaled a bay colt by Torpoint.Prince Hohenlohe-Oehringen has secured second call on the services in Austria-Hungary of C. Trigg, baron A. de Rothschild's jockey.Mr. George Faber's colors used to be white and yellow collar, but have been altered to lilac, orange sleeves and scarlet cap, which were "blooded" for the first time at Birmingham on Dennison.Miss Evelyn Taylor, the well-known comedienne, and owner of Closewood Beck, has at present six horses in training at Colchester at Malton, which number will be greatly increased during the next few weeks, for now that her colors have been carried to victory she intends to race on a larger scale.During the season which has just closed in Calcutta Mr. R. Craig McKerrrow headed the list of winning owners with $16,565 more than $5,000 ahead of the second winning owner. J. D. Scott was the winning trainer with fifteen successes and J. Davis the leading jockey with twelve firsts, twelve seconds and nine thirds out of sixty-six mounts.Mr. W. Jarvis, Jr., led in several winners for his patron last season, but Vachery, by Ormondale—Bassia, the winner of the Glen Sellaing Plate at Leicester, March 27, is owned by him. The American-bred filly, which he picked up cheaply at the fully sales last year, is a fine animal to run for him, and it is pleasing to record a success for this "beginner."Mr. Reid Walker has had remarkably good luck this season with his mares at the stud, and already he has five fillies and five colts, among them being several by Blimeford, as well as a filly by Flotsam, a colt by Louisa, and a filly by Sunday. It was not tensebrosa (dam of Duke Michael, Belted Earl and Belford), a colt by The White Knight, a filly by Spearminot, and a colt by Torpoint.The speedy filly Thorsaga met with a curious accident at Newmarket recently. She was on the way to the training enclosure from the Race Side one morning when a horse fell over the terrace into the road in front of her. Much frightened by the accident, Thorsaga side-stepped across the road, fell and cut her lip so badly that it had to be stitched up. The filly is all right again after her narrow escape from serious accident.Mr. C. Kohler, the American sportsman, has over a dozen two-year-olds in J. Butters' stable at Newmarket, and it augurs well for them that the first horse to carry his copper and green-sleeved jacket here should have caught the judge's eye. This was Speedyfoot, the son of the late Lord of the Rings.
March 2. A charming, lengthy filly, she seems gifted with wonderful enduring powers, as after having to plough her way through a sea of mud, and having quite a sharp rally with the well-tried Wild Arum, she came out of the enclosure in fine fettle as dry as she went out.—London Sporting Life.

DEATH OF THE SIRE OF ROCK SAND.

Last week I remarked on the absence of the name of Sainfoin from the list of stallions whose fees for this year have been registered with Messrs.
Weatherby, and suggested that as he was foaled as long ago as 1871, it would be interesting to know if he was still in the land of the living.
It was well known, of course, that the sire of Rock Sand had been in Ireland for the last six years, but at times well known stallions are dead and buried "without heart of drum" in the runs.
Minting, for example, departed for the happy hunting grounds in the summer of 1900 and it was not until many months afterwards that an observant scribe chanced to come across the record of his death in the last volume of the Stud Book, and promptly sent round an obituary notice to the papers, making a "scoop" in a small way. In similar fashion Sainfoin has passed away without the fact of his death being given publicly, for my note of last week had brought me a letter from Mr. W. H.
Tweavley, of Rathoolie, Ballinore, County Kildare, kindly informing me that "Sainfoin died some time since at Messrs. Slowcock's, of Carlow," and adding that he is succeeded there by the Desmond horse, Machakos.Poor old Sainfoin. In him vanishes the best of the sons of Springfield, and here of what most people in the spring of 1890 thought would be known as Sainfoin's heir, especially after the slashing bay son of Wisdom had entered of with the Two Thousand Guineas. Sainfoin, in his earlier days at Kingsclere, was not seriously regarded as a Derby horse, for the reason that his stable companion, Seven to ten pounds his superior, it was not until Rightaway seriously injured his foot, through treading on a stone at exercise, that the second string came into the limelight, and as the race for the Irish Balm proved, the second string was in the fortunate position of having two colts good enough to win it. Rightaway (like Surefoot, a son of Wisdom) had entered off with a race at Liverpool prior to meeting with the mishap referred to, and he pulled round in time to finish for the Legger, but his unfortunate doctored foot, and he split a pastern during that race, which fell to the Duke of Portland by aid of Memoir. Sainfoin was bred at Queen Victoria's stud at Hampton Court, and was bought at the annual sale as a yearling byMr. John Porter for 550 guineas. I think the late Sir R. Jardine had a half share in him, and at his only appearance as a juvenile he won the Astley Stakes at Lewes. The next season he carried off the Essex Stakes at Sandown and the Dee Stakes at Chester, and was afterwards sold to Sir James Miller for 7,500 sovereigns and a contingency of half the Derby stakes. After his victory in the Epsom classic he ran several times without success, retiring to the stud in 1892. Rock Sand, a long way the most successful of his get, but Cin-quefoil, Marconi, Banana and others were good winners. After Sir J. Miller's death Lord Carnarvon bought Sainfoin for 700 guineas. This was in 1895, and for the next few years he stood at the Cloughran Stud, near Dublin, before being transferred to the Messrs. Slowcock's stud at Carlow.
Last year there was only one foal by him, and only one in 1911, but before that he had a fair number.
His only winners last season were Merry Lassie, which brought off a 100 to 6 chance at Hurst Park when known as the Barnassie filly and Fair Offender, which scored at the Curragh—"Vigilant," in London Sportsman.

THE CANADIAN VIEW OF IT.

The resumption of racing in the State of New York will not have any particular effect on the turf in Canada, except in the way that what benefits one benefits all engaged or interested in any particular branch of sport. Racing here has not been dependant on New York, or any other place.
It has been supported by our own people and, though naturally many horses come here from the states, attracted by the generous purses and inviting conditions, there will this year, as usual, be plenty of material for all the Canadian meetings. They are going slowly in New York, with only three days a week until Saratoga opens in August, and the purses will not surpass those given here, so that anyway the attractions of the metropolitan courses will not be sufficient to keep away many owners and subscribers to the fund that has been raised to guarantee this season's sport. But it has been demonstrated during the lean years of New York that we have as good as these right on our own tracks. The owners named have many good horses, but their stables do not include many of the champions, and we got along well before they ever came north. This, of course, does not mean that they were not warmly welcomed, nor that their absence will not be generally regretted, but only that the conduct of New York racing will have only a good effect here, and the Canadian season should be more prosperous than ever.—Toronto Globe.

KATIE POWERS DIES IN TENNESSEE.

M. J. Reardon of Nashville, Tenn., reports the death of Katie Powers, a mare that ran many good races over muddy tracks some seasons ago in the colors of W. P. Reardon. She died at Saunders-ville, Tenn., where she was kept, of acute indigestion.

on and, wearing VENO VON down, outgamed her in the final drive. VENO VON set a fast pace, but quit when challenged and is a speedy non-stayer. CLOUD CHIEF ran in closest pursuit for the first half and tired in the last quarter. DUST ran fairly well. The others were beaten off at the end.7715 SECOND RACE—1-2 Mile. (88767-473-2-122.) Purse $300. 2-year-olds. Maidens.

 JESSUP BURN was reserved behind the pacemakers until straightened out the homestretch, then moved up rapidly and drew away in a canter in the last sixteenth.  Went to post at 4:45. At post 1 minute. Start poor and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. COUNTERPART ran into the lead quickly and, showing the most speed all the way, hung on resolutely in a hard stretch drive. GOLDEN TREASURE ran well, but met with repeated interference and should have won. JUDGE WALSER closed a big gap and finished gamely. SPELLBOUND began slowly, but quit after moving up to the leaders and can beat such horses easily.
